MEDICINAL.

CURES OTHERS

Mrs. WILLIAM ROBERTS, Bridgeport, N. Y., writes: "If I had not taken your Medicine, I would not be here now. The doctors did me no good, I was just a mere skeleton, could not eat, I would have awful pain in my stomach—pain in my side, bowels and chest; soreness in my back and womb; was weak, nervous, and could not sleep.

After I took your "Favorite Prescription, and Golden Medical Discovery," I commenced to improve. In two weeks could walk about the house—could eat—did not have any, more pain in my stomach—three ways my morphine powders. When I first commenced taking the medicine it made me feel worse. I was loarse, could not speek aloud for three days; as I got better my pains and bad feelings left me and I could sleep good; my nerves got better. Before I took your medicine I kept my bed four months—got worse all the while. I am now quite flesby and can work all day."

ZELLA CHARGES ASSAULT. A dispatch from New York says a new and interesting turn is at hand in the Gould-Nicolaus case.

Lawyer Alexander Simpson, Zeila's counsel, said that he intends either to amend the declaration in the present case so as to include a charge of assault against George Gould, or to bring another suit on that charge. The assault in question is alleged by Lawyer Simpson to have taken place in the early part of 1893 before Miss Nicolaus departed so suddenly for Europe in company with Al. Ruhman. Mr. Simpson declined to state the exact time or place of the assault.

The lawyer has notified Lawyer Lindabury, Mr. Gould's attorney of record in New Jersey, that he would serve the papers in the new suit as soon as he had finished consulting the law on the subject.

Whether or not Mr. Gould will be arrested on the new charge on his ar rival in this city from Europe Lawyer Simpson declined to state. Mr. Gould is now on the Paris on his way to New Vork

This last move on the part of Zella has had the effect of agitating the law-yers for the defense considerably.

The examination of Dr. Schultz, of Indiana, one of the witnesses who will testify in the trial, was set for yester-day afternoon in the office of Lawyer Winslow S. Pierce, Mr. Gould's confidential counsel, but he did not appear. Lawyer Lindabury Wednesday served notice on Zella's counsel that the defense will apply to the presiding judge for a struck jury. This is to be done because Mr. Gould's lawyers, according to the defense, are afraid to try the case before a jury selected from the regular panel.

Mr. Lindabury also notified Lawyer Simpson Wednesday that the trial would come off no later than the third or fourth Tuesday in September.

The fair but frail Zella arrived in Philadelphia from New York Tuesday, and registered at the Continental Hotel as Miss Zella Ruhman. She was accompanied by a retinue of managers sub-manager and press agents, but wished to distinctly impress the news paper men, who were favored with in-terviews, with the fact that she was very much averse to notoriety.

Miss Nicolaus-Ruhman makes her debut upon the stage next week at a local burlesque theatre, but she said she wasn't sure what sort of a part she would play, as she hadn't yet been informed by her managers. She was even dubious about the name of the

Although willing to talk about everything else under the sun. Miss Nicolaus-Ruhman firmly declined to discuss her suit against George Gould until she had received instructions from her attorneys n New York. One of her managers, a Mr. Strouse seemed particularly anxious lest she should commit herself, but Zella showed she had a mind of her own, and was perfectly able to take care of herself.

This new suit is a criminal action against Mr. Gould, is it not?" Miss Nicolaus-Ruhman was asked.

"Now, think a bit before you answer any questions," interposed Mr. Strouse.

"Really, I don't care to discuss that," murmured Miss Nicolaus-Ruhman, with a modest downward movement of her long evelashes. "Has Mr. Gould recently made any overtures toward a compromise? Has he given you any money?"

"I wouldn't answer that," hastily remarked Mr. Strouse, who appeared to be very uneasy.

"I wish you wouldn,t interrupt, petulantly exclaimed the embryo ac tress. And Mr. Strouse subsided.

"Two summers ago I was prevailed upon to go abroad," she continued.
"At Mr. Gould's instigation?"

"That I cannot say."
"Who is Dr. Shultz, who, it is claimed, is the chief witness in the new case?"

"I really do not know, but I am positive he can have no evidence that could incriminate me. I believe he is from Indiana, and may know my parents. But he doesn't know me. The trial cannot come off too soon for me. When you are in the right, don't you know, you have no fears. That's the way I feel about it."

MEDICINAL.

Headache.

This distressing malady is caused by a run-down state of the health, and is often a forerunner of other and more dangerous diseases.

Brown's Iron Bitters

cures headache by removing the cause of it; and this is the way it does it.

It purifies and enriches the blood, quickens the action of the kidneys, the liver and the bowels, and gently and pleasantly stimulates the digestive organs, and in fact thoroughly renovates and tones up the whole system-and you have no more headache. And besides it is pleasant to take, and will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation.

Is this not better than dosing yourself with disagreeable and dangerous drugs, which at the best can do no lasting good?
